

Bristol Hospice is pleased to announce its new partnership with St. Agatha Comfort Care in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Founded in 2021, St. Agatha Comfort Care has quickly earned a strong reputation for delivering exceptional hospice and palliative care across Clark County, including the Las Vegas and Henderson areas. St. Agatha's mission has always been to provide the highest level of care that addresses the physical, psychosocial, and spiritual needs of individuals at the end of life.

Bristol Hospice CEO, Alex Mauricio, expressed enthusiasm about the partnership, stating, "St. Agatha Hospice has built a legacy of outstanding patient care, and we are excited to support the team as they enter this next phase of growth. Together, we will combine our talents and resources to continue delivering the highest clinical standards while expanding our presence in new and existing communities. This collaboration will create valuable synergies and enhance staffing coverage, as we aim to significantly broaden our service areas."

Bristol Hospice, established in 2006, has a long history of providing exceptional hospice and palliative care services nationwide. Over the past 19 years, the company has grown substantially and now serves thousands of patients and families daily, dealing with life-limiting illnesses. With this new relationship with St. Agatha, Bristol is thrilled to bring its compassionate care model to the Las Vegas community.

"St. Agatha's team shares our commitment to providing the highest quality care, and we are eager to join forces," said Mauricio. "We look forward to continuing to serve the Las Vegas area and beyond, offering our trusted hospice services to those in need."

St. Agatha Hospice CEO, Alfred Esquerra, a longtime Las Vegas resident and active community leader, expressed his pride in this partnership. "I am thrilled to see the company we've worked so hard to build partner with an organization that shares our values and dedication to excellence. Bristol Hospice has a strong reputation, and I'm confident their expertise will enhance the legacy of care we've provided to the Las Vegas community for years to come."

Bristol Hospice, headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah, currently operates 71 locations across 25 states, providing comprehensive hospice services to communities nationwide. The company's specialty programs are designed to offer high-quality care to patients and families during some of life's most difficult moments.
